LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The petit jury for the first week of court is published in this issue.

Mrs. L. T. May and the children are visiting the home folks at Ora, Laurens county.

Mrs. M. H. Fuller of Honea Path spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McManus.

The Edgefield chapter U. D. C., will meet Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. A. Smith.

Mr. Oliver Dobson and Mr. Manly Dobson spent Saturday and Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Emma N. Dobson.

Miss Anna Mae Scurry came up from Aiken and spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Scurry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mays, Mr. Walter Mays and Miss Sheron of Aiken were welcome visitors in Edgefield Monday.

Mr. William Thurmond, Jr., came home from his studies at the University of South Carolina for the week-end.

Mrs. Berta Hill of Augusta spent several days last week with Mrs. David Strother, returning to her home on Sunday.

Mrs. T. L. Nicholson and little Nellie Braxton Nicholson arrived from Chicago Sunday night. They were met in Columbia by Mr. B. B. Jones.

Mr. J. B. Kennerly came home for the week-end and left Monday for Charleston, Mrs. Kennerly taking him as far as Aiken in their Studebaker.

Mrs. Andrew Covar and their two little sons are here from Abbeville spending two weeks with Mrs. Covar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Prescott.

Mr. J. T. Mims, Jr., of Eastland, Texas, arrived Saturday to spend some time here with the home folk. He has been very cordially greeted by his friends.

Major R. S. Anderson has arrived from Washington to spend the interim between the sessions of congress here at home. He is always very cordially greeted by his friends.

The Philharmonic Music Club will meet next Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of Miss Gladys Padgett and all members are requested to be present.

Mr. Joseph Johns of Mobile is here visiting his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Cobb. Mr. Johns has the honor of being assistant United States district attorney of his district.

Miss Fanine Harris who completed the 10th grade in the Edgefield high school in 1920 is now taking the 11th grade here, realizing the excellent advantages that are offered.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Rubenstein motored from Augusta in their new Essex and spent Sunday in Edgefield visiting Mrs. Rubenstein's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Prescott.

Master William Cogburn, the second son of Mrs. Lillie Cogburn, is attending the Edgefield high school again this session, making his home with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kennerly.

Dr. B. F. Jones was in Columbia Wednesday and attended a sale of about 175 horses and mules, some of the mules bringing as high as $250 per head. That sounds like the good old times are near at hand again.

The Advertiser wafts affectionate greetings to the little son of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Ennett who was born Saturday in Richmond. The little gentleman will receive a royal welcome on his first visit to Edgefield.

Hon. James O. Sheppard is drafting a bill to introduce in the next session of the legislature to provide for the State's furnishing boll weevil poisoning material to farmers at cost. He went to Clemson Friday to confer with Dr. Riggs and others there about the matter. Such a provision would save farmers many thousands of dollars. Mr. Sheppard is to be commended for his interest and alertness in this matter.

When you are in doubt as to what to get for your table to please the "lord of creation" in the home look up the advertisement of Mr. Huggins Store. He always has something nice to offer at an attractive price, too.

The Advertiser very cheerfully gives space to Mr. W. G. Ouzts and to Mr. M. A. Watson this week to make statements in reply to our editorial of last week. These statements are published on the second page of this issue.

Mr. E. L. Strom of the Mountain Creek section is serving Mr. Rubenstein as salesman and he will be pleased to have his friends call. Mr. Strom is an experienced salesman and Mr. Rubenstein has made a good selection.

Dr. Eustice Prescott was a welcome visitor in Edgefield Friday, having come home early last week after being on naval duty in Hayti for 27 months. This week he will go to Washington, D. C., for duty at the naval hospital.

A progressive store in Colliers community, Holland's Grocery, gives an attractive list of prices in its advertisement in our columns this week. Read of the list of staple articles and you will find many of the prices surprisingly low.

The Antioch school opened Monday, the force of teachers consisting of Miss Jennie Pattison, Miss Lucile Reel and Miss Grace Holcombe. Miss Pattison and Miss Reel taught in this school last session and their services gave entire satisfaction.

The regular preaching service will be held at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11:30 and at night at eight o'clock there will be a program rendered by the Sunbeams under the leadership of Miss Gladys Lyon. Everybody is cordially invited.

Mrs. J. S. Byrd went to Columbia Sunday for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzmaurice, and to attend the marriage of her sister, Miss Katherine Fitzmaurice, which occurred yesterday. Dr. Byrd went over to Columbia yesterday morning.

At a recent meeting the board of public works reduced the price of electric light service from 15 to 12½ cents per K. W. hour. The board has effected a satisfactory arrangement with Mr. M. W. Shive for supplying shavings from his planer for fuel for a period of three years.

Mrs. B. P. Bryan stopped over in Edgefield Wednesday upon her return from Augusta where she had been to visit her sister, Mrs. Fannie Perry, who had been quite sick. For a number of years Mrs. Perry has had charge of the Travelers' Aid work at the union station in Augusta.

Mr. Clyde Hamilton left this morning for Washington, D. C., in an automobile, the trip being made in order to deliver a car in Washington. He expects to make the entire trip of something like 600 miles in two days and a half. It appears now that he will have good weather for the entire trip.

Capt. P. M. Feltham after spending two weeks here with his family left this morning for Alexandria, La., to inspect as engineer for the government a large hospital which is now under construction. Some of the most important engineering assignments are given Capt. Feltham by the government.

The friends of Mrs. N. M. Jones sympathize with her deeply in the death of her sister, Mrs. B. I. Gantt at her home in Wagener Saturday morning. She had been at the bedside of her sister for a week previous to her death. Mr. Jones motored to Wagener Sunday morning to attend the funeral.

Mr. Henry Ford claims that he builds the best automobile in America. It is known as the Lincoln and is built by the best mechanics Mr. Ford can employ and of the best material he can find on the market. The Yonce Motor Company advertises the Lincoln car in this issue. If you want the best that money can buy in the way of an automobile and yet at a cheaper price than other high-class cars sell, see Mr. Yonce and talk it over with him.

FOR SALE: One two-year old hound, well trained for squirrels and possums; also one six months old hound.

The home of Mr. Frank L. Rearden in the Waycross section was burned last Thursday afternoon about three o'clock. The only persons at home at the time were Mr. Rearden's mother, Mrs. Rearden and Mr. Zach Boone. They carried $1,000 on the residence but none on the furniture, practically all of which was a total loss.

Capt. and Mrs. L. Y. Moore moved from the hotel this morning to the residence of Mrs. Emily Mims on Main Street where they will make their home. For nearly a year they have very successfully managed the Dixie Highway Hotel, advertising the splendid new hotel by their superior service, which is the most effective and most lasting form of advertising.

Mr. Turner gives an excellent reason in the Corner Store advertisement this week why the people should buy of the home merchant, instead of giving their money to strangers. If the home merchant sells you anything that is not satisfactory, he will make it good, but when a stranger gets your money it is gone forever. The Corner Store advertises True-Shape hosiery this week.

A large number of persons attended the game of foot ball Saturday played at Clemson between the Center College and Clemson teams. Among those who went were Prof. W. O. Tatum, Capt. L. Y. Moore, Mr. H. B. Salley, Dozier Tompkins, Lubert Rainsford, Edward Peak, Luther Johnson, William and J. C. Hughes, Amos Moore and D. V. Harris, Jr.

Rev. J. K. Walker endeared himself to a number of our people while he was conducting the revival services last week at the Methodist church. He is an able, earnest and effective preacher and his gospel sermons will be as seed sown in good ground in Edgefield, bearing fruit in the years to come. Up to this time four have united with the church as a result of the meeting.

Attention is directed to the double page advertisement of Mr. Rubenstein in this issue. It contains a long list of bargains in seasonable merchandise which should attract people from a great distance. This money-saving sale begins Friday, October 6, and lasts for 15 days. The very low prices he offers dependable merchandise that will make your cash buy more than it has before in a long time. Read over the offerings of the different departments. It will pay you.

Sunday at the Methodist Church.

Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, the pastor, will preach at the Edgefield Methodist church Sunday morning and night. He will take for the morning subject "Feeding the Multitudes." The doors of the church will be open for the reception of members at both services. Visitors and strangers are cordially welcome at the services.

Has Large Field.

Mr. W. E. LaGrone of Johnston is among the visitors in Edgefield today, being still actively engaged in enlisting the cooperation of farmers in the Cotton Growers Co-operative Marketing association. Mr. LaGrone's field has been enlarged to cover five counties. He stated that a considerable number of farmers are placing their old cotton with the association, realizing the advantages to be gained.

Mass Meeting in Court House.

Next Monday night at eight o'clock a mass meeting of citizens who are interested in establishing a creamery at Edgefield will be held in the Court House. This meeting should be well attended by farmers not only from the immediate vicinity of Edgefield but those who reside in other sections should also be interested in establishing a creamery at the county seat, being easy of access from every part of the county. Remember the time, Monday night at 8 o'clock. Several dairy experts from Clemson will be present.

Notice.

All creditors of estates of Annie T. Miller and T. L. Miller, late of said county and state, deceased, will render an account of their demands, duly attested, and all debtors thereto will pay amounts due by them, to the undersigned Executor and Administrator Cum Testamento Annexo, at his home, postoffice being Collier, S. LINCOLN

Get Behind the Wheel

A ride in a Lincoln is one continuous trip of comfort and enjoyment. Changes in road conditions bring scarcely any perceptible difference in the smoothness with which your car travels.

Rear springs shackled at both ends; final drive through a torque tube; combined with superior control of the motor power itself, afford a master sense of security in any driving emergency.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union Hostess for Teachers' Reception.

The W. C. T. U., recognizing the great power and influence of the teacher in the class room over the minds and hearts of children in the plastic period of their life, has sought to keep in close touch with the schools and have shown appreciation of the teaching profession in many and varied ways. Each year the local union has entertained the teachers at a reception. This year the occasion was celebrated at the home of Mrs. J. L. Mims, when eighty-five guests were present. Except for the dust, the afternoon was ideal and the program was full of interest.

Mrs. J. L. Mims greeted the guests at the door, and Mrs. T. H. Rainsford and Mrs. Helen S. Nicholson assisted in making all the members of the W. C. T. U. and other guests acquainted with the faculty of our school.

Edgefield should be very proud, in a proper sense, for the musical talent which we have, as is shown by the following programme, but which the mere reading of the type can not fully exemplify. Only those who were present could feel its beauty and uplifting power.

In the greetings, Mrs. J. M. Wright spoke of the desire on the part of the U. D. C. to co-operate with the school and of her desire for the correct teaching of Southern history, also the past enthusiasm of the faculty in rendering assistance.

Mrs. Helen S. Nicholson very graciously made a spontaneous greeting for the D. A. R. in the absence of the Regent, Mrs. Susan B. Hill.

Mrs. W. E. Lott represented the Parent-Teachers Association who had given to the school an elegant reception soon after the opening, and on that occasion she welcomed them but she said that a clarification of loving greetings could not be too often reiterated.

Mrs. Lovick Mims presented a beautiful presentation of the value of a music club, and her greetings were a prose poem. One lady said "Mrs. Mims is a past master in doing pleasant things."

Mrs. W. L. Dunovant spoke in behalf of the League of Women Voters which she has so ably represented from the incipency of the organization.

Mrs. J. W. Stewart, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. A. T. Allen gave a most cordial greeting and invitation to the teachers to attend the mission societies of their respective churches.

The Civic League and Episcopal societies were invited to send a representative, but all programs, like all human events, have their disappointments and in this case we were deprived of hearing from these effective and uplifting agencies in our community.

The following was the program:

Greetings—Mrs. J. L. Mims.
Violin Romanzo, Schumann—Miss Lois Mims, accompanist, Miss Felicia Mims.

Vocal solo, "Just be Glad," words by James Whitcomb Riley—Mrs. M. B. Tucker, accompanist, Mrs. H. H. Smith.

Piano, "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls,"—Miss Annie Holmes Harrison.

"Still as the Night," Brown, Mrs. A. R. Nicholson, violin obligato, Miss Lois Mims, accompanist, Miss Genevieve Norris.

Greetings—
Daughters of the Confederacy—Mrs. J. M. Wright.

Daughters of the American Revolution—Mrs. Helen S. Nicholson.
Parent-Teachers Association, Mrs. W. E. Lott.

Music Club—Mrs. Lovick Mims.
League of Women Voters—Mrs. W. L. Dunovant.

Methodist Mission Society—Mrs. J. W. Stewart.

Presbyterian Mission Society—Mrs. N. G. Evans.

Baptist Mission Society—Mrs. A. T. Allen.

Violin trio, "By the Waters of Minnetonka," Thurlow Leurance—Mrs. Walter Cantelou, Mrs. Leon Warren, Miss Lois Mims, accompanist, Miss Genevieve Norris.

Vocal solo, "I Know He Watches Me,"—Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, accompanist, Miss Sadie Mims.

At the close of the above program, a salad course and iced tea was served which was prepared and furnished by the organization of the W. C. T. U.

SEED OATS AND WHEAT.

We want the farmers to know that we can supply them with seed oats, seed rye and wheat. Let us have your orders. We also carry a complete stock of Heavy and Fancy Groceries. We can make you very close prices. Come in to see us.
